Team AMVETS Department of California Service Foundation Privacy Policy

The Team AMVETS Department of California Service Foundation (AMVETS) takes your individual privacy very seriously. AMVETS does not share or sell a donor's on-line personal information with anyone else, nor do we send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations. Donors can ask for their online and offline information to be shared in the future. AMVETS follows the On-Line Privacy Guidelines and the Guidelines on Ethical Business Practices of the Direct Marketing Association (DMA). Your privacy is important to us.

The AMVETS will never share any personal information obtained on line or offline through this web site. Personal information from those who communicate with us online may be collected for the purpose of responding to specific requests from you. Online donations to AMVETS are processed over a secure connection between your computer and this server. Credit card information is encrypted when submitted to the processor and not stored on our computer systems. Our web server recognizes consumer TCP/IP addresses for the purpose of analyzing web site access and improving the content of our web site.

Postal and e-mail addresses provided online will be used only to: offer opportunities for contributing in support of service programs for veterans and their families; process donations; respond to requests for information, and provide donation receipts. We will also provide periodic releases of timely and important information, which may be of interest to you.

Information provided by individuals over this site will not be made available to outside companies or organizations. If you would like to review your personal information or request a correction, please contact us via e-mail or by calling (714) 761-5811.
